Adventures in scuba diving at the Macomb County Library

CLINTON TOWNSHIP, Mich. – Ever wondered what it's like to swim with sharks, or how complicated scuba gear really is? George Weirath of the Sea-Side Dive Shop of St. Clair Shores will be at the Macomb County Library to answer these questions and more during his presentation, "Adventures in Scuba Diving."

Beginning at 7 p.m. Wednesday, Feb. 8, the presentation will include a video about the Great Storm of 1913, footage of Weirath's Caribbean dives and a demonstration of diving gear. This program is part of the "Everyone's Reading" series of programs, sponsored by Macomb County Library and other area libraries.

The "Everyone's Reading" Book Club selection is "Shadow Divers," by Robert Kurson. This exciting adventure story tells of the real-life discovery two divers made of a German U-boat off the coast of New Jersey.

"Adventures in Scuba Diving" is free and open to the public, but reservations are required. Reservations can be made by calling the Macomb County Library at 586-286-6660.

About Macomb County

Macomb County is an enriching community in Southeastern Michigan that has one of the state's fastest rates of growth. Its 834,000 residents make it Michigan's third-largest county, with direct access to Lake St. Clair and Anchor Bay, and a host of cultural and entertainment options. Its highly skilled workforce and investment in new and expanding businesses make it open to enterprise. Active civic leadership translates into balanced budgets and Michigan's second-lowest tax rate. An increasingly diverse population and high quality of life make Macomb County accessible to all.
